GAMES AT HOME.

At Richmond—August 28.

At Lawrenceburg—August 18, 19, September 3, 10.
At Winchester—August 21, 27.

"Old Hutch" will entertain you at the Lawmakers benefit next Saturday night.

Lexington fell easy victims to the Richmond Pioneers in the Bluegrass League game Tuesday. The features were the masterly twirling of Golden for the Richmonds, who pitched a no-hit game, the second one this season, also the batting of Doherty and Shelton for the Richmonds. Doherty made two home runs with men on bases and Shelton got five hits out of five times up, one of which was a triple.

Batteries—R. Golden, Berte; Stanley, Elgin. Two-base Hit—Golden. Three-base Hit—Shelton. Home Runs—Doherty 2. Struck Out—by Golden 10; by Stanley 3. Hitting a batter, followed by a wild throw, gave the visitors their only run.

Lawrenceburg defeated Winchester at the latter place Tuesday by the score of 2 to 0. Batteries—Winchester, Tony and Marmillotte; Lawrenceburg, Schrauder and Yantz. Hits—Winchester 1; Lawrenceburg 3. Errors—Winchester 7; Lawrenceburg 2.

Several of our local fans have decided to give the Lawmakers a benefit at the Opera House next Saturday night, which promises to eclipse anything of its kind ever witnessed in Central Kentucky. Manager Perkins has agreed to donate one-half of the receipts of this night to our pennant-winning club, and the theatre should be crowded to its fullest capacity. An unusually fine musical program has been arranged by local talent. Among those who will take part are such well known singers and artists as Mr. J. M. VanDeveer, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay South, Frank Hutchison, Mr. Jno. W. Milam, and Cornell quartet. Mr. Milam will recite "Casey at the Bat," which will be a rare treat. Frankfort's team is working faithfully to win the flag, but on account of the heavy expense, the Lawmakers are badly in need of money, and we think it is due every lover of the national game to turn out next Saturday night and assist "Chicken's" slugers along. The price of admission will be 10 cents.

Don't fail to hear John Milam recite "Casey at the Bat" at the Lawmakers benefit at the Opera House next Saturday night.

Special from Toledo, Ohio, says: "Grover Land, Toledo's premier backstop, has been sold to the Cleveland American League Club, and will join the Naps at the close of the American Association season. Land's sale is a part of the deal for Charley Pruitt and Charley Hickman, who were purchased from the Naps last week." Grover is a Frankfort boy and his many friends are rejoicing at his rapid rise in base ball, and predict a brilliant future for him.

Lexington proved to be easy money for the Lawmakers here Wednesday afternoon, "Chicken's" pennant winners taking their scalp by a score of 3 to 1. Schulte was on the rubber for the local club and was master of the Ponies at all times. Frye pitched a very nice game for the Thoroughbreds.

The Reds, although playing an errorless game, were unable to win the game with Richmond at Winchester Wednesday. Richmond managed to bunch hits off Doyle in the sixth and won the game, which was one of the hardest contested for some time. The score by innings:

Winchester 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Two-base hits—Doherty, McBride. Struck out—By Doyle, 8; by Golden, 9. Passed ball—Bertie, 1.

Shelbyville defeated Lawrenceburg in the last four innings of the game at Shelbyville Wednesday by a fierce batting rally, which carried the Distillers off their feet. Score by Innings: Shelbyville 1 0 0 0 0 3 1 2—7
Lawrenceburg 1 0 1 0 2 0 2 0—6

Richmond went down in defeat here Sunday afternoon at the hands of Frankfort's pennant winners by a score of 8 to 4. Cornell did the slab work for the locals, and while he was a little wild at first, he finally settled down and won the game with ease. "Red" Bohannon landed with the willow hard enough to drive the pig skin over left field fence with three men on base. This makes three home runs for "Red" on the local diamond this season.

The Frankfort Lawmakers defeated the Millers at Shelbyville Monday in a very pretty game by a score of 3 to 2. Umpire Devaney informed the fans before the game that he would not stand for any such stunts that had been pulled off heretofore, and they took him at his word and behaved very nicely. "Invincible Rasty" Wright was on the rubber for the Lawmakers, and, as usual, was a mystery to the country boys, and while they landed on him a few times, the hits were scattered and done the Millers no good whatever. This makes the ninth consecutive game that the "boy from Hatton" has won, and so far this year he has not lost a single game, and has walked only one man in 81 innings. This is what we call "going some." Little Emmet O'Neal was on the slab for the Millers and pitched a very nice game. Leo Angermeier's injured thumb prevented him from wearing the big mit, and "Buz" Steele filled his place behind the bat, and caught a magnificent game.

Wednesday's Lexington Herald says: The Lexington baseball team again met defeat at the hands of the Lawmakers Wednesday, by a score of 3 to 1, at Frankfort. The Pony team presented a patched-up line-up, owing to recent friction between Manager Sheets and certain members of the team. It was announced Wednesday night that a number of new men will be here to take part in Sunday's game, and Manager Sheets says the loss of Smeltz, Fieber and Hayden will not be felt. Anderson, an outfielder from the Cotton States League and Dick Wright, a twirler from Virginia, will soon report here, and the line-up promises to be as strong as ever. At Frankfort Hatcher was sent to left field, while Hogarty, a local amateur, cavorted around the short field. Frye pitched a great game, but was accorded poor support by his team mates, who were helpless before the masterly pitching of Schulte. This youngster seems to be a "phenom" as he held the Ponies to two hits on their last appearance in the Capital City. The Lawmakers are playing a great game just now and they look to

The Millers will be here Sunday and have saved their best material to do the slab work. The boys from Shelby are a little sore over their defeat of last week on their home grounds, and they will try mighty hard to get revenge. The Millers will be accompanied by a crowd of rooters.

Mr. Lewis Angermeier, who played in the left garden for the Lawmakers the first part of the season, has accepted the position of assistant manager of the Capital pool room, which shortly will be opened in the Home Hotel. Lewis is not only a fine ball player, but is one of the best fellows in the city, and the manager could not have made a better selection if he had searched the State over. To know this little Dutchman is to like him, and he will certainly be a drawing card for sure.

Mulligan's Hit.

The two great rival teams had played as they had never played before; Not a lone misplay or an error made. Not a tally shown in the score. Nine innings the two opposing teams had tried every trick to win, But their efforts proved mere idle dreams—
Not a run could be batted in
Ten thousand fans had cheered until It seemed the stands would fall,
But nothing came thro' the baseball mill
Till Mulligan clouted the ball.

The like was never seen before
And may never be seen again
While Time, the scorer, keeps the score

Of the world's great baseball men.
'Twill live in history's gilded page
As the greatest event of all:
'Twas the baseball triumph of the age
When Mulligan clouted the ball.

The tenth brought neither hit nor run;
The eleventh was just the same;
Then, as the twelfth was almost done,
The hit of the great day came,
One side went out, just as before,
And the other came to bat,
But two retired with a gooseegg score
Before you could murmur "scat!"
Then upsteps Mulligan to the plate,
A stout, steady lad, but small,
And the first ball pitched got a broken pate
When Mulligan clouted the ball.

There never was a swat like that
Since the ball game came in style;
He hit so hard he broke the bat
And the ball went just a mile.
And Mulligan, he ran so fast,
That he got his home run in
And couldn't stop until, at last,
He had finished a half-mile spin.
A bigger noise could not be made
Than the fans that afternoon displayed
When Mulligan clouted the ball.

Signs All Point To Election of Bryan.

SENATOR MCCREARY FINDS GOOD NEWS WHILE HE IS IN THE EAST.

Senator McCreary stopped over some hours here on his way from Atlantic City to his home in Kentucky, says a Washington dispatch to the Courier-Journal. Mrs. McCreary returns with him. She went to Atlantic City just after Congress adjourned, and has been benefited by her stay at that popular resort. After attending the Denver Convention the Senator joined Mrs. McCreary at Atlantic City.

While in the East, Senator McCreary has met many prominent people and well-posted men, and from his conversation with them he is strongly of the opinion that Mr. Bryan is going to win in November. The Senator finds that the Democrats are united in all sections, and the talk on all sides is that the Republican are split into factions.

Hard times, the high cost of living, the hundreds of thousands of people out of employment and the revolt in the ranks of labor against Taft cause Senator McCreary to conclude that it is impossible for the Republicans to elect their ticket this year. And Mr. Bryan, the Senator believes, is much stronger than in any of his previous campaigns. The people know him well now, and the Senator says that he is sure that when he is elected he will make a safe, conservative and able President.

The Balance Wheel.

Look inside your watch a moment. The balance wheel is making 18,000 vibrations an hour, if it's in good condition. If the movement is sluggish, there's something wrong. It will move 3,558 miles in a year, and requires less than one-tenth of a drop of oil to make the run. But it needs that little badly. The least increase of friction on the bearings alters the motion. Don't take chances. Let us clean and oil and put your watch in order for a year.

IT WILL PAY AND SATISFY YOU.
